How does Jesus guide us through life?

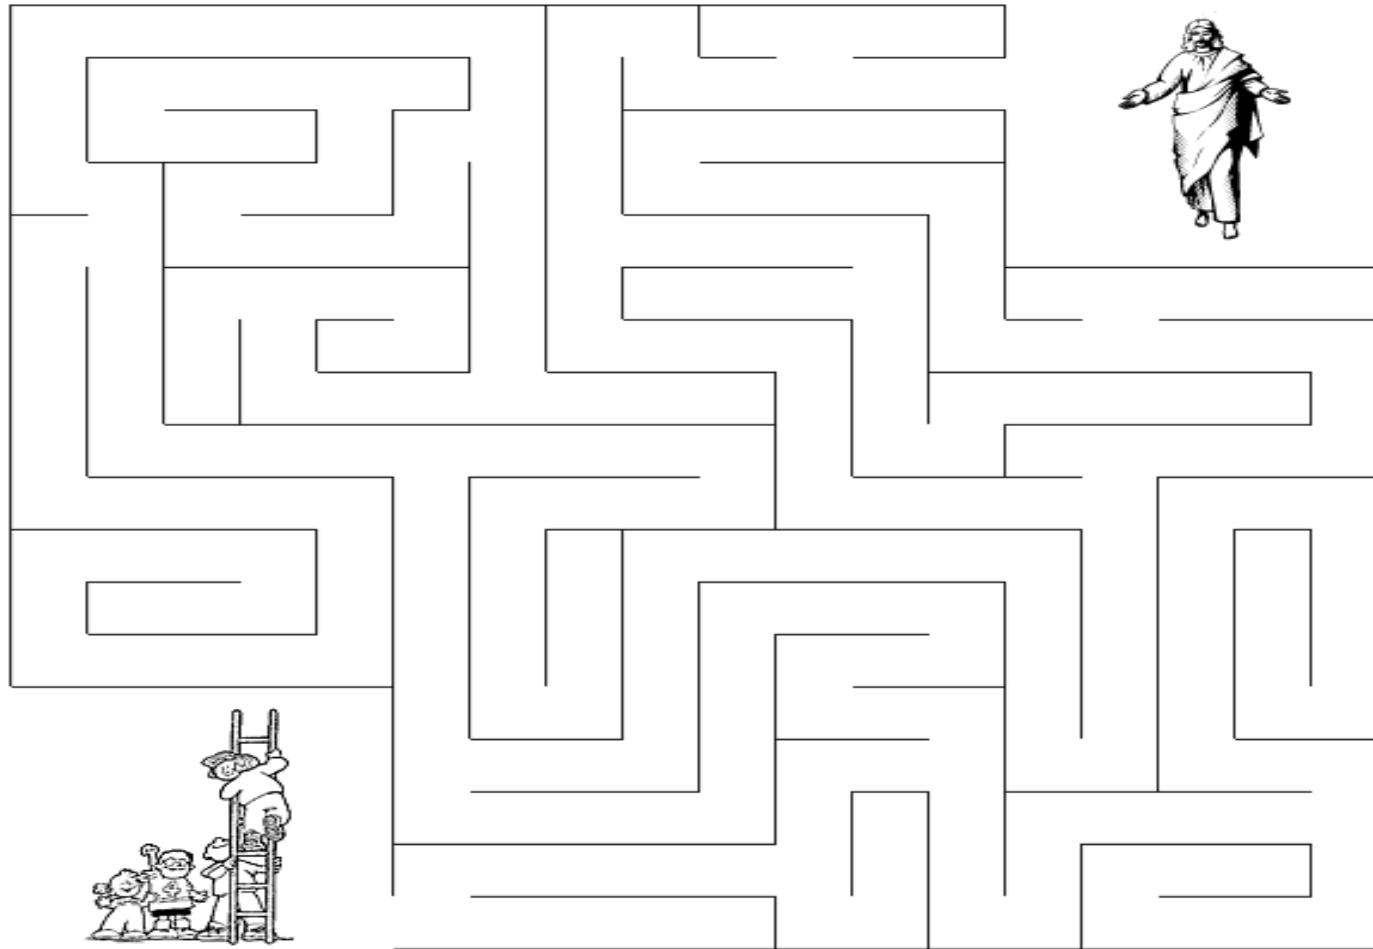

Jesus is telling his friends that he is going to prepare a place for them in heaven. How does he describe it?

There are lots of ways that heaven is described in the Bible: a house or mansion, a city . But the most important thing is that Jesus is there. He's the person who loves you and knows more than anyone else.

What do we learn about Jesus in these verses from the Bible?

Can you find your way across the maze?

Jesus himself is the way. He can be our guide through life.
